The Kaak Group acquires 80% share in oven manufacturer MCS-Oss Srl.

Lithia Springs, GA - To enhance and secure the future of his company and to arrange his succession, the owner of MCS-Oss Srl. Mr. Giorgio Oss, has sold 80% of his shares to the Kaak Group, as of July 1st 2005.

MCS-Oss Srl., produces wire mesh tunnel and stone sole ovens, various swing tray proofers, and complete industrial pizza production lines. The Kaak Group and MCS have partnered on several projects, and the MCS product line is a perfect addition to the Kaak line.

The acquisition and merger of the Kaak Group with MCS-Oss Srl. will provide customers with expanded solutions from Kaak, and also allow more synergism in technology and sales. Mr. Oss and Jan Kaak will share responsibility for worldwide management of MCS, and no staff reductions are planned for either company.

The Atlanta based regional office of the Kaak Group will be responsible for the sales of MCS equipment in North America. All the existing North American based MCS customers can now contact the Kaak Group North America Inc. office in Atlanta for service and spare parts for MCS equipment (sold in the US since 1976). For more information contact the Kaak sales department at (800) 367-2504.
